Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hawkins (2424694) or Hopewell (5150858) in view of Heinze (2029717).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the antifriction bearing arrangement of either that of figure 1 or 3 of Heinze for 37 of Hopewell or 105 of Hawkins since it is a mere substitution of known anti friction bearings.

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
